Respected Sir,

Greetings from G L Bajaj !!!

A Value Education Cell has been set up in the Institute under the guidelines of AICTE. The prime objective of the Value Education Cell is to integrate human values in technical education. Towards improving the quality of technical education in the country, AICTE recommends setting up a Value Education Cell in the University/Colleges with the objective of nurturing students to live with mutual happiness with human beings, and mutual prosperity with the rest of nature, along with the development of technical competence. Awareness of human values must be integrated in the teaching-learning process to realize the real purpose of education. This will develop the human potential, leading to human excellence. Human excellence is the bedrock of the Nation's strength.

25th January 2021

A Value Education Cell has been set up in the Institute under the guidelines of AICTE. The prime objective of the Value Education Cell is to integrate human values in technical education. Towards improving the quality of technical education in the country, AICTE recommends setting up a Value Education Cell in the University/Colleges with the objective of nurturing students to live with mutual happiness with human beings, and mutual prosperity with the rest of nature, along with the development of technical competence. Awareness of human values must be integrated in the teaching-learning process to realize the real purpose of education. This will develop the human potential, leading to human excellence. Human excellence is the bedrock of the Nation's strength.

In line with the AICTE mandate, one-day staff training program on “Understanding and Realization of Basic Human Aspiration” was held on 25th January 2021, organized by Value Education Cell, G.L. Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management, Greater Noida.

The invited eminent speaker was Dr Gajendra Singh, Dean Value Education, Dr APJ Abdul Kalam Technical University, Lucknow.

The session witnessed participation of around 100 non-teaching staff participants of institute. The event started with the welcome address by Dr. Rajeev Agarwal, Director GLBITM, Greater Noida.

The resource person Dr Gajendra Singh, expressed his genuine views by delivering a very inspiring speech. He talked about the Continuous happiness and prosperity, State or situation, Harmony or synergy, Happiness and Unhappiness. He shared his experiences with real time examples on the participants that the role of education-sanskar is to enable this transformation by way of ensuring the development of the competence to live with human consciousness and definite human conduct. He explained how the Physical facility is necessary for human being but something more is also required. For human beings physical facility is necessary but relationship is also necessary for continuity of happiness and prosperity.

He asked the participants the Out of the three types of fear, which is predominant for us ? Fear of natural calamities, Fear of wild animals and Fear of the inhuman behavior of human beings. He deliberated that, if our living is only for physical facility, then we are living with animal consciousness, because animals live only for physical facility and are fulfilled by that, not human being. He concluded that most of the problems we see around us are only the symptoms of human beings not living with human consciousness.

Finally, the session ended with Vote of Thanks by Dr. Satyendra Sharma, Head, ECE. The Convenor of the event was Prof. Jay Singh and Mr Dheerendra Tyagi Coordinator VEC, GLBITM
